

Answering Machine Scripts | Just Sold

Hello, (homeowner name). My name is (your name) with (your company name). You may remember we are the realtors who recently sold a home in your neighborhood at (property address). You should have received a postcard in the mail from us recently. Anyway, I was just calling to see if you might be curious about how much the home sold for (is listed for, the market in your neighborhood, complimentary market analysis) or if you might be thinking about moving or possibly selling your home or know anyone thinking about selling or buying. If so, please do not hesitate to call me (your phone number). That is (your phone number again). Thanks and have a wonderful day!
