EQUAL HOUSING OPPORTUNITY

You've heard the saying, the most important thing in real estate is Location, Location, Location.
We believe the most important thing in selecting a Realtor is Reputation, Reputation, Reputation.

My team sold over 130 properties last year. During Hurricane Katrina I made phone calls to colleagues in other states who have had great growth as we did, to get advice on how to work in this market. I constantly watch the market to see what is happening with our prices, and the number of homes coming on the market. Read about the effect of hurricane Katrina on our market at www.BRRealEStateBlog.BlogSpot.com.

Then call me to come visit with you. I'll help you make those hard decisions on the selling of your property. Use my experience and knowledge to guide you through this uncertain real estate market we are experiencing.
